Foreword

English is widely used International Language. It is regarded as the second language to be taught in our schools. In order to acquire sound command knowledge of this language, all the linguistic skills should be mastered with proper attention, enthusiasm and continuous practice. ‘Practice makes things perfect.’ The Government has taken up curricular reforms with a view to strengthening the learning skills of children. Meticulous steps have been taken in designing Workbooks to reinforce what the children learnt from the textbook.

Worksheets incorporated in this Workbook are learner-centered, created with the intention of developing independent learning abilities in the children. There is an explicit unit - wise link between the Textbook and the Workbook. Different segments of a lesson are organized to take the learner along the path of learning correlating and relearning different aspects of the topic chosen. This Workbook also provides an opportunity to the teacher to easily handle the learners of multi grade classes. Resource management could be sufficiently and efficiently done in the Multi Grade and Multi Level class rooms. All the worksheets promote imaginative and critical thinking abilities among the children and reinforce the learning objectives. Bilingual instructions are also given to the learners for self-learning. Empty double ruled pages are given to avoid additional notebooks thus decreasing the weight of the school bag. Holistically this Workbook aims to strengthen the ability of the learners to use the language.

We are grateful to our Honourable Chief Minister Sri Y.S Jagan Mohan Reddy for being our source of inspiration to carry out this extensive reform in the education department. We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Sri Botcha Satyanarayana, Honourable Minister of Education for striving towards qualitative education. Our special thanks to Sri Budithi Rajsekhar, IAS, Special Chief Secretary, School Education, Sri. S. Suresh Kumar, IAS, Commissioner of School Education & State Project Director, SS, Smt. Vetriselvi.K, IAS, Special Officer, English Medium Project for their constant motivation and guidance.

We convey our thanks to the expert team. We also thank our Workbook writers, editors and layout designers for their contribution in the development of this Workbook. We invite constructive feedback from the teachers and parents for further refinement of the Workbook.

Read the following story. కీంది story ను చదపండి.

Everyone knew that Sthuthi was the best speller in the whole class. She used to get perfect scores during each weekly spelling test.

Sthuthi was so confident in her spelling abilities that she had felt and decided not to study for her next spelling test. The test began. Mrs. Rajani pronounced each word and then repeated it. Everything was OK until she spoke "Handkerchief". Sthuthi scribbled h-a-n-d-k-e-r-c-h.....now what?? i-e-f?...or...e-i-f? Her mind was blank.

Mrs. Rajani started to move on to the next word. It occurred to Sthuthi that Greeshma knew how to spell it!! Greeshma had written this word fifty times.

There was wide open space between Sthuthi and Greeshma. Sthuthi's eyes rolled to the right. There it was, spelled out in Greeshma's hand writing. Her eyes went quickly back to her own paper and finished the word with the letters "i-e-f".

Sthuthi remained tense and nervous as Mrs. Rajani read the last spelling word. She had cheated for the first time in her life. She thought, "Is this the way I want to keep my perfect record - by being a cheater?"

Frantically, she erased what she had written earlier and replaced it with what she knew was the wrong answer. She wrote "e-i-f". As her sweaty hands released pencil and passed the test up to the front, she sighed with relief. She thought, "So, what if my perfect scores are no longer intact? At least my honesty is." Later teacher explained her that the words which have /s/ sound only have like receive, deceive... etc.
